QUESTIONS PEOPLE ASK

Q: Why is the glorious story of the transfiguration always read during the penitential season of Lent?

A: Penance is better when it wears a happy face and is inspired by the desire for God's light and glory. The three apostles who witnessed the glory of Jesus would later witness his fear and agony in Gethsemane. Their memory of the day of light would sustain them in the night of darkness. Treasure your times of light when you feel close to God as you will be able to draw strength from memory in times of darkness.
